RENO MAN WILL BE BURIED IN TONOPAH

WIDOW AND SON UNABLE TO COME HERE FOR THE FUNERAL.

The remains of Joe Rheeling, who died suddenly Friday morning at the Greystone hotel, will be interred in Reno on instructions from Mrs. Jewell Rheeling and son in Sacramento. The letter stated the family was unable to provide for removal of the remains.

The message was received by Ed Byrnes, an old friend of the family. Deceased was one of the first hotel keepers of Beatty, where he conducted a hotel in the boom days of the Bullfrog country. From Beatty Rheeling moved to Goldfield and then to Rawhide when that camp sprang into prominence. He ran a hotel there at the beginning of the rush and was one of the first to enter the hotel business when that camp began its phenomenal career. He was well liked by those who knew him and was popular with the traveling and prospecting public. He came to Tonopah only two weeks ago and went to work at the Tonopah Grill as night waiter. He remained several shifts and then took sick. He laid off Thursday night and died next morning. He was at Byrnes' house until 11:30 the previous night and complained that he was not feeling well. He was well off, owning a ranch in California, and his widow is left in comfortable circumstances. For the last three years he worked at the Thomas cafe in Reno.

The dead man seems to have had domestic trouble, culminating in a suit for alienation of affections in which he secured judgment for $2000 on a demand for $10,000. This award of the district court at Reno was against E. A. Brainard, a food dealer of that city. An appeal was taken to the supreme court and a decision is expected daily.

AURORA CON. SALE DECLARED OFF BY KNIGHT INTERESTS

WINGFIELD ASKS FOR AN EXTENSION OF TEN DAYS AND IS REFUSED.

SALT LAKE, April 21.—The option which the Goldfield Consolidated Mines company has had on the Aurora Consolidated property at Aurora, Nev., for several weeks was not exercised today, according to "Uncle" Jesse Knight. The option expired today, but the Goldfield Consolidated decided not to take over the property at a price which is said to have been $1,000,000.

Last Saturday Albert Burch, general manager of the Goldfield Consolidated, was in the city in an effort to get an extension of the option for ten days. This Mr. Knight and his associates refused to give, feeling they said, that they would rather have the property than sell it.

Since the property was taken over something over a year ago by the Knight interests John H. Leavell of the engineering firm of Kirk & Leavell has been in charge of the work at the property. During the past few months considerable new ore has been opened up that is a great deal higher grade than what was originally figured on. The mill, which was designed by Kirk & Leavell, will be finished about June 1.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, April 21.—While congress debated the Mexican situation, the president ordered Admiral Fletcher to seize the custom house at Vera Cruz, to prevent Huerta getting several million rounds of ammunition and 200 field guns on a German steamer bound for that port. Orders were to seize after the ammunition was landed, as there is no blockade.

Officials say the president has ample authority for this action without the approval of congress.

The orders were sent when it became apparent that congress would delay.

play" will probably be substituted for "justified in employment of." It probably will be otherwise strengthened.

The resolution is as follows:
"A joint resolution justifying the employment of the armed forces of the United States in enforcing certain demands against Victoriano Huerta:

"Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives, in congress assembled, that the president of the United States is justified in the employment of the armed forces of the United States to enforce the demands upon Victoriano Huerta for unequivocal assents to the government of the United States for affronts and indignities committed against this government by General Huerta and his representatives."

When the house and senate reconvened, the senate began work on the resolution of approval for the president's course. A new resolution to accept the apologies offered by Huerta as "sufficient reparation" for the Tampico incident was introduced by Senator Works.

The house resolution as amended by the foreign relations committee was laid before the senate.

Senator Lodge opened the debate, saying: "The power to declare war rests, under the constitution, with congress. When the president lays an international controversy before congress he takes the last step that precedes war. I think he has done well."

Senator Williams said the Lodge resolution was a declaration of war against Mexico. The president sounded the right keynote—Huerta, the house struck the keynote—Victoriano Huerta. The hope of the house conference was that it insist on naming Huerta as the insulting party. If war comes the world will know it is war against Huerta, forced by Huerta, and not against Mexico.

Senator Works pleaded for peace. "How much better would it have been for the president himself had he declared that the apology for the arrest of our sailors at Tampico was sufficient. I fear we lack the moral courage to say to a stricken nation that the apology already made is enough."

Senator McCumber said that under no circumstances should congress place the United States in a position of accepting "either by implication or otherwise an alliance with that murderer and bandit Villa."

GOLDFIELD BOYS START OUT TO SEE THE WORLD

ONE OF THEIR NUMBER HAD FUNDS AND THE OTHERS HAD A GOOD TIME.

A bunch of boys came over from Goldfield last Sunday with the baseball team and were so much pleased with their adventures that they decided to continue out into the great world. The only drawback to the success of their plans was the scarcity of funds. One of them was supplied with savings taken from the postal savings bank and he flashed a half a dozen double eagles on the gaze of his companions who dreamed of untold and unlimited luxury. One of the bunch suggested they go to Oakland and the suggestion met with instant approval. By this time Clarence Ellington the capitalist kid, found his pile had been reduced to $80 and he could not afford to take many deadheads. Anyway he resolved to go it alone and the other boys volunteered to see him as far as Millers. About this time Chief of Police Evans got wise to the preparations and got in touch with Bob Ellington, formerly deputy sheriff at Goldfield, who told him the boy was spending his own money honestly earned at a local store, but asked to have him held here until the parents would come and induce him to return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellington appeared this morning at Millers and took their boy home. The other boys had walked to Millers and were stranded when their moneyed friend was removed. Those kids, Lloyd O'Donnell and Frank Doherty, came back to Tonopah and were found by Chief Evans looking for somebody to give them a square meal. He called up Goldfield and found the parents of the boys could not do anything for them and he sent them home. Two other boys wandered off in the direction of Millers and Sheriff Malley went after them.
